The Wellesley Inn.

The prospectus of the Wellesley Inn, to be built by the Wellesley Tea Room Corporation, proves most interesting in many ways.

When The Tea Room was started in the fall of 1897, its founders, Miss Mary Esther Chase, '95, and Miss Clara Hathorne Shaw, '97, dreamed and talked of the "some day" when a large establishment could be built—a "club house." However, little did they realize that the day would come when their dreams and desires would be really carried out. But the day has come, and all the friends of The Tea Room are rejoicing over the prosperity which has made it necessary, as well as possible, for The Tea Room to have a home for itself.

In the spring of 1899 Miss Chase bought Miss Shaw's share in The Tea Room, and for the two following years carried on the establishment by herself. Miss Chase conceived the thought that the club idea would be better carried out, and the college students, faculty and alumnae more interested in the prosperity of The Tea Room if a corporation should be formed, allowing the members and graduates of the College to purchase the stock. With this thought in mind a corporation was formed last fall, and the shares were very quickly taken.

Since the corporation was formed the business of The Tea Room has grown most rapidly, and the present accommodations have proved inadequate.

After consultation with several prominent business men, the following plan was made.

I. To purchase a piece of property in Wellesley.

II. To build a large addition to the house already standing on the land, and to make necessary repairs.

III. To so arrange the building that it may be divided into two practically separate parts, one for the use of the students, with a separate entrance, dining-room, parlor and lodging rooms, the other for the public, where friends of those not living at The Wellesley Inn, and the outside world, may secure a good breakfast, luncheon, "afternoon tea" or dinner.

There will be several rooms reserved for out-of-town guests, who wish to spend a few days or weeks in Wellesley.

IV. To call the new building The Wellesley Inn, without changing the name of the corporation.

V. It is the aim of those interested to make The Wellesley Inn so artistic and attractive in every way that it will be an attraction for driving and coaching parties.

The College has expressed its willingness to place The Wellesley Inn on the same general basis as the other village houses desiring students as boarders, provided that the management shall have fulfilled certain additional conditions imposed because of the presence of transient guests.

In order to carry out the plans it was necessary to increase the capitalization of The Wellesley Tea Room Corporation and to sell new stock. This is now being done and the advantages of being a stockholder are so many that the shares are being bought very rapidly by both members of the College and outside friends.

Some of the many advantages of joining The Tea Room Corporation are

A. To College Faculty and Undergraduate Students.

1. All the advantages of a good Club. Special rooms will be reserved for Stockholders.
 - a. For social afternoons.
 - b. For entertainment of out-of-town guests.
2. A good paying investment.
3. Opportunity to sell stock upon leaving college.

B. To Graduates.

1. A home when visiting the College.
2. A method of keeping in touch with the College.

A sheet of COLLEGE NEWS is issued weekly by The Tea Room Corporation.

3. A good investment.

C. To Graduate Students.

1. Graduate Students belonging to The Tea Room Corporation will have first choice of rooms at The Wellesley Inn.
2. A good investment.

D. To Investors in general.

1. A good profit.
2. A safe investment.

The property is to be purchased at a very reasonable price. It is in the heart of the village, in a location desirable for both business and residential purposes.

The business of The Tea Room during the past four years proves beyond question that any money put into it is an investment well placed.

Miss Chase will gladly send a copy of The Prospectus to any one who is considering becoming a Stockholder.

Hollis H. Hunnewell.

College appointments were as far as possible set aside and no college boats were taken out on the lake yesterday afternoon during the hour of funeral services for the late Hollis H. Hunnewell. The College has always been generously befriended by Mr. Hunnewell, who, in addition, a few years ago, endowed the botany department, the chair of which is now known as the Hunnewell professorship of botany.

Barnswallows' Entertainment.

On Saturday evening, May 24, occurred the final and one of the best Barnswallows' entertainments of the year. The play presented was W. B. Yeats, "The Land of the Heart's Desire." Preceding the presentation of the play, Miss Mary Haskell, 1897, first president of Barnswallows, gave a short talk to the Barnswallows' audience concerning the early history of the organization. Following Miss Haskell, Miss A. Bruce McClure sang Irish folk songs and Miss Sophie Brown played Irish airs on the violin. The play was presented by the following cast:

MAURTEEN BRUIN.....	Elizabeth Colman
SHAWN BRUIN.....	Clara More
FATHER HART.....	Grace Clark
BRIDGET BRUIN.....	I. S. Kelly
MAIRE BRUIN.....	Sibyl Baker
A FAERY CHILD.....	Maudie Dewar

"The scene is laid in the Barony of Kilmacowen in the County of Sligo and the time is the end of the Eighteenth century. The characters are supposed to speak in Gaelic."

The play was given by Sophomores entirely; the cast throughout, was good, Miss Baker as Maire Bruin, deserving especial mention. Miss Hetty Wheeler was chairman of the committee having the entertainment in charge.

Fifty-eight candidates for advanced degrees at Cornell are reported this year, twenty for the degree of A. M., seven for M. S. in agriculture, six for M. M. E., and twenty-five for Ph. D. The candidates for the doctorate are well scattered among the departments. Philosophy claims four, physics three, Latin, English, history and political science, mathematics, histology and botany two each, and German, geology, entomology, agriculture, civil engineering and mechanical engineering one each.

COLLEGE NOTES.

On Saturday evening, May 24, in the Town Hall, the Musical Association of Amherst College, gave a concert. The proceeds of the entertainment are for the supporting of a Wellesley free bed at Newton Hospital.

The basket-ball contest between 1902 and 1903 on Thursday afternoon, May 22, resulted in a victory for the Juniors, score 8 to 7. Notice of the game of the preceding week between the Freshmen and the Sophomores was unintentionally omitted from last week's issue of the College News. 1904 won from 1905 by a score of 6 to 4.

The result of the Barnswallow Elections was as follows:

Elsie Roberts, '03, President.
Ruth Hart, '04, Vice-President.
Eleanor Monroe, '04, Treasurer.
Elizabeth Marston, '05, Secretary.

ATTENTION!

Anyone desiring some "pin-money" may apply at The Tea Room. Some one is needed at once to attend to The Tea Room every evening from 7.30 to 9.30. Assistants will be needed during Commencement.

NOTES.

A private opening view of the work of students in the department of art was held in the Art Gallery on Saturday afternoon, May 24.

President Hazard of Wellesley College and Miss Irwin, dean of Radcliffe College, addressed a meeting given under the auspices of the Girls' Club of Chelsea, at Central Congregational Church, on the evening of May 22.

As Dr. Jaggar of Harvard University has sailed on the Martinique expedition, his place as lecturer on advanced geography at Wellesley will be filled by Dr. Palache, also of Harvard.

The students in Professor Bennett's elocution classes at the College of Liberal Arts united with her Wellesley class in a recital at Wellesley, Monday evening, May 26. The Wellesley girls gave two scenes from "Hamlet," a selection from "David Copperfield," and another from "The Little Minister." Two of Professor McDougall's pupils sang, Miss Morton of the university repeated the selection from "Monsieur Beauchaire," given in Jacob Sleeper Hall, last week, and Messrs. Lawton, French, Togus, Coan, Jewett and Baker, and Misses Robbins and Webster gave three scenes from "Cyrano de Bergerac." The University Male Quartette furnished several musical numbers.

The Misses Hegeman, E. Newton, Noera, Schopperle, and Turney of Society Tau Zeta Epsilon, have issued invitations for a reception and platform dance, to be given on Saturday evening, May 31, at Tau Zeta Epsilon House. In case of rain on Saturday the dance will be given on Monday evening, June 2d.

FIELD DAY.

Each Class the Winner of a Major Event.

Field Day took place last Monday. Preliminaries in tennis, basket-ball and golf were played off last week. The finals in golf were played on Saturday with the following scores: Marie Louise Abbott, '05, 59; Margaret O. Stevens, '04, 63; Anne D. McClure, '02, 70; giving the freshmen class first place, and the sophomore class second place.

Monday morning found an enthusiastic crowd to witness the basket-ball game between 1903 and 1904. The game proved most exciting. At the end of the first half the score stood 7-2 in favor of the sophomores. At the end of the second half the score stood 14-9 in favor of the juniors. Miss Blanche Emmons, '03, was conspicuous for her accurate work in tossing for goals. Miss Marvin of the sophomores, did excellent work. Both teams played exceedingly well, and the game is generally voted to be a record-breaker in its points of interest.

Following the basket-ball were the entertaining events of the morning. First came the obstacle race, under the charge of Clara More, won by Henrietta Page, '03; next came the walking race, under the management of Florence Barth, won by Marie Hershey, '03; then the jumping rope contest, managed by Sally Knight, won by H. Goddard, '02; the balance beam, managed by Theodore E. McCutcheon, won by Florence McCormick, '05; the potato race, managed by Grace Clark, won by Adele Ogden, '04; and most amusing of all, the three-legged race, managed by Hetty Wheeler, and won by Betty Halsey, '05, and Marie Dowd, '05. The winners in these events were each presented with a small pewter cup bearing the inscription, W. A. A., May 26, '02.

While these events were going on, cheers from the tennis court announced Miss Ida Kitchen, '04, the winner, thus giving first place in tennis to the sophomores.

The competition between the class crews followed; the different eighths were judged for form, smoothness, watermanship and rhythm. Owing to a mistake, the judgment was given before the appearance of the second sophomore and freshmen crews. The judges wish to announce that their decision remained the same, after having seen these two crews. The first place was given to the seniors and second to the freshmen.

The standing of each class at the end of the events, Monday, was as follows: '02, 7 points; '03, 7 points; '04, 13 points; '05, 10 points.

Second place in basket-ball and tennis was to have been decided Tuesday afternoon. According to the plan to decide for this place in basket-ball, the two losers, 1902 and 1905, should have played against each other, and the winner of these two losers should have played the loser of the two winners, i.e., 1904. However, the 1902's lost by default to 1905, as their game did not come off before a certain date, and the game for Tuesday fell between 1905 and 1904.

The final report has not been given out at the time of going to press.

The day was most enjoyable throughout, and Miss Landis, the president of the Athletic Association, is to be congratulated on the success of the day.

Miss Hazard's Visit in Chicago.

Friday evening, May 16, Miss Hazard was entertained at dinner by Dr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Jameson. Dr. Jameson is head professor of history in the University of Chicago. The other guests were Dr. Edward Everett Hale of Boston. Mr. and Mrs. James Rowland Angell and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hugh Montgomery.

The Chicago-Wellesley Club entertained President Hazard and Mr. Hardy at a luncheon on Saturday, May 17, at the Union League Club. The table was decorated with bridesmaids' roses and lilacs and ferns. Fifty two were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Morris, Jr., entertained Miss Hazard at dinner Saturday, May 17. Mrs. Morris was Constance Rothschild, '96.

Miss Hazard and Mr. Hardy were entertained Saturday evening, May 17th, by Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hugh Montgomery at a box party at the University (of Chicago) play given at the Auditorium. The play was a revival of the Elizabethan drama in the presentation of Ben Jonson's "The Case is Altered."

The Only Student Director.

By the order of President Butler, Columbia University now has an officer whose duplicate will probably not be found in any other educational institution in the country. The new official is a director of student organizations, and the first incumbent of the position is Prof. Marston Taylor Bogart. Professor Bogart formerly occupied the office of controller of sports at Columbia, and the authorities, seeing how the system worked in the case of athletics, decided to extend its scope to cover all other branches of student activity. As controller, Professor Bogart had complete supervision of the financing of the various athletic teams; now his power has been enlarged so as to include the other organizations, such as musical and dramatic clubs, publications and societies of different kinds. The only forms of undergraduate life that may not come under his direction are the Greek letter fraternities. The first act of the new director has been to disband the Musical Club, which was insolvent. Any other society in a like condition may suffer the same fate at his hands. As the scheme is a new one, it is being watched with interest by university men.

PRIZE COMPETITION.

The College Equal Suffrage League announces this year two prizes for essays in favor of equal suffrage, in hopes of stimulating an interest in the movement among college women, or at least, of bringing to their notice the principles on which the reform is based.

The subjects offered give an opportunity to study equal suffrage from an historical standpoint, as well as in its relation to our present national and social conditions.

The date of closing the competition has been fixed at such a time as to give competitors the opportunity afforded by the summer vacation to write their essays.

The League announces the following list of judges for the competition:

- Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson,
- Mr. Edwin D. Mead,
- Mrs. Charles G. Ames.

Last year the League offered a similar prize which was won by Miss Ava M. Stoddard, a sophomore at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

* The conditions governing the competition are as follows:

1. The prize for the best essay to be $75.00. The prize for the second best essay to be $25.00.
2. The competition to be open to all undergraduates and graduates of the classes of '99, '00, '01 of the women's colleges of Massachusetts, including the women undergraduates and graduates of the classes of '99, '00, '01 of Tufts College, Boston University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
3. The choice of the following subjects is allowed for the essay:—
 - (a) Equal Suffrage as a help to democracy.
 - (b) Equal Suffrage as an influence on the home.
 - (c) Equal Suffrage as an influence on the individual and the race.
 - (d) Equal Suffrage from the economic standpoint.
4. The essay to be not less than 4,000 and not more than 6,000 words.
5. Essays must be written on one side of the paper only. Typewritten manuscript preferred.
6. In no case must the manuscript be signed.
7. A sealed envelope containing the name and address of the writer, the college with which she is connected, and the class to which she belongs, must be pinned to each manuscript.
8. No competitor can submit more than one manuscript.
9. No manuscript will be returned unless accompanied by stamps to cover postage.
10. All manuscripts must be received on or before September 20, 1902, as no manuscript will be accepted after that date. (Awards will be announced as soon as possible after this date.)
11. The list of judges will be announced not later than June 1, 1902.
12. Address all manuscripts and apply for further information to
